GOVERNMENT OF GOA

Department of Personnel

Office Memorandum

File No. 9/4/2005-PER/3416

Subject: Ban on all recruitment processes in Government Departments/Grant-in-Aid Institutions.

Government is in the process of finalizing the instructions related to the implementation of the recommendation of the Seventh Central Pay Commission, in respect of pay and allowances to the employees of the Government and Government aided institutions. While doing so, it is required that an adequate balance is maintained considering the additional enhanced liabilities on account of increase in salary and pension vis-a-vis the existing strength of the Government and Government aided employees.

2. In order to ensure that there is sufficient adequacy fund for payment of enhanced salaries and pension, so that implementation of the recommendations of the Seventh Central Pay Commission is carried out in a smooth manner; it is required to put a halt to all recruitment processes in the Government Departments as well as Government aided institutions.

3. Therefore, as a measure to rationalize the expenditure on account of new appointments/ recruitments, it has been decided that,—

- i) There shall be ban on the recruitment process in the Government and Government aided institutions with effect from 23-11-2016.
- ii) The recruitment process currently in progress shall be kept on hold forthwith by the Department concerned and they shall not proceed to,—
  - a) conduct written test/viva voce/oral interview where applications have been invited.

b) issue offer of appointments/appointment orders where selections of the candidates have been done.

iii) These instructions shall apply to all types of recruitment including those on regular/ temporary establishment, workcharged establishment, NMR, daily wages, contract basis, etc.

iv) These instructions shall cover all Grant-in-Aid institutions/Government autonomous bodies/Corporations/Agencies/PSUs etc., where Government funding involved is more than 50%.

v) These instructions shall not apply to,—

- a) recruitment processes initiated and on-going by Goa Public Service Commission.
- b) contractual basis appointments of short tenure of six months and for further extension of contract.

4. In the event, the Department concerned requires the services of the staff/employees or requires that the ongoing recruitment process be completed, on account of certain exigencies of work and specific Departmental requirement; then relaxation of the above mentioned condition should be obtained and specific approval of the Department of Personnel with prior concurrence of the Finance (R & C) Department, shall have to be taken. In case of Government aided educational institutions (including the Goa University), the Directorate of Education, Directorate of Higher Education and the Directorate of Technical Education (as the case may be) shall first assess the request made by the Institution concerned and thereafter recommend the case for obtaining specific approval of the Department of Personnel and concurrence of the Finance (R&C) Department.

5. Further, it is directed that all Departments should individually assess their staffing requirement vis-a-vis the schemes and programmes being implemented and carry out a proper restructuring of the Department. For this purpose they shall avail the assistance of the Administrative Reforms Department to carry out the detail work study in this regard.

As such the staff in all categories who are on deputation/work arrangements basis functioning in various Departments/Corporations/Agencies, etc., shall forthwith be withdrawn w.e.f. 30-11-2016 and this staff shall stand repatriated to the parent Department.

This shall not however apply to those belonging to Goa Civil Service, Common Accounts Cadre and whose appointment has been done as Head of Department by the Department of Personnel.

In case of any exigencies of work which require the services of particular employee(s), then a specific request with proper justification shall be made to the Department of Personnel who will in turn examine the matter and convey specific approval with prior concurrence of the Finance (R & C) Department.

6. The aforementioned instructions shall be come into effect from 23-11-2016 and shall be further reviewed after a period of six months.

7. All Secretaries to the Government shall submit a compliance report on the above instructions being implemented in their respective Departments & Institutions to the Department of Personnel by 25-11-2016, with a copy endorsed to the Finance (R & C) Department.

Yetindra Maralkar, Additional Secretary (Personnel).
